Speakers

Principle speaker Andrea Charman, Managing Partner of the Equilearn Group, and David Collier, Managing Director of DCA Leadership Development Ltd specialize in developing leadership and professional capability using Action Based Development (ABD). Using this innovative approach David and Andrea have supported and developed professionals and leaders within organizations such as HBOS, Lloyds TSB and Persimmon.

Presentation Objectives

- Enhance personal insights gained through reviewing and reflecting on professional actions taken.
- Exposure to new theories, ideas and concepts which support effective professional practice.
- Researching and developing theories of what really goes on in an organization and making change and improvements happen.
- Improved performance and action in your role.

Who should attend?

Professionals and senior specialists from the private, public and third sectors operating at middle/senior manager level with responsibility for managing others, or your role will require you to influence others at a senior level within and / or outside your organization.

Topics to be covered

- Why action-based learning is the most effective and efficient approach to leadership development.
- What it takes to achieve Masters Accreditation while at the same time increasing your personal, professional and current business performance.
- How the Action Based Development approach underpins this MA in Professional Practice by offering
 1. The personal support of a fully accredited Action Learning Coach.
 2. Additional one-to-one leadership coaching.
 3. Participation in a series of workshops over the programme and membership of a learning set.
